I - Executive Summary and Overview

First Quarter 2015 Market Recap

The U.S. stock market (S&P 500 Index) was relatively flat as corporate earnings and GDP growth expectations were lowered through the quarter. On the other hand, developed international equity markets (MSCI EAFE Index) were up due to improved economic data and aggressive central bank stimulus in Europe and Japan. Emerging markets (MSCI EM Index) also rose amid a strong dollar and positive earnings. Although the Federal Reserve has officially ended their stimulus program, a certain level of uncertainty remains about how much longer short-term rates will be kept near zero. However, the broad fixed income market (Barclays Aggregate Bond Index) did rise as investors predicted that rate hikes were not imminent. The unemployment rate fell from 5.7% to 5.5%, as total employment increased by only 130,000 jobs this quarter. Real GDP increased 2.2% in the fourth quarter, after growing by 5.0% in the third quarter.

Outlook

There is increasing evidence that the U.S. economy is improving; however, economic data still offers a mixture of positive and negative signals. On the negative side, corporate earnings forecasts have been lowered due to the relative strength of the dollar, which makes it more costly for U.S. companies to repatriate profits made abroad. In addition, February and early March winter weather hampered consumption expenditures and general business activity, evident in disappointing GDP and employment figures. Furthermore, due in part to the fall of energy prices, inflation continued to remain below the Fed's 2% target level through the quarter. Additional concerns are the instability throughout the Middle East and a potential increase in market volatility as the Fed considers the possibility of raising interest rates. On the positive side, new home sales were up and consumer confidence continued to rise through the quarter. A continued focus on long-term goals and objectives is a prudent course, balancing downside risk at current valuations with the potential for upside performance.

PIMCO StockPlus Total Return

The Fund seeks to exceed the total return of the S&P 500 Index by investing under normal circumstances in S&P 500 Index derivatives, backed by a portfolio of Fixed Income Instruments. Fixed Income Instruments include bonds, debt securities and other similar instruments issued by various U.S. and non-U.S. public- or private-sector entities. The Fund may invest in common stocks, options, futures, options on futures and swaps. The Fund normally uses S&P 500 Index derivatives instead of S&P 500 Index stocks to attempt to equal or exceed the daily performance of the S&P 500 Index. The Fund typically will seek to gain long exposure to its benchmark index in an amount, under normal circumstances, approximately equal to the Fund's net assets. The value of S&P 500 Index derivatives should closely track changes in the value of the S&P 500 Index. However, S&P 500 Index derivatives may be purchased with a small fraction of the assets that would be needed to purchase the equity securities directly, so that the remainder of the assets may be invested in Fixed Income Instruments. Pacific Investment Management Company LLC (PIMCO) actively manages the Fixed Income Instruments held by the Fund with a view toward enhancing the Fund's total return, subject to an overall portfolio duration which normally varies from (negative) 3 years to positive 8 years based on PIMCO's forecast for interest rates. Duration is a measure used to determine the sensitivity of a security's price to changes in interest rates. The longer a security's duration, the more sensitive it will be to changes in interest rates. The S&P 500 Index is composed of 500 selected common stocks that represent approximately two-thirds of the total market value of all U.S. common stocks. The Fund seeks to remain invested in S&P 500 Index derivatives or S&P 500 Index stocks even when the S&P 500 Index is declining. Though the Fund does not normally invest directly in S&P 500 Index securities, when S&P 500 Index derivatives appear to be overvalued relative to the S&P 500 Index, the Fund may invest all of its assets in a basket of S&P 500 Index stocks. The Fund also may invest in exchange-traded funds based on the S&P 500 Index, such as Standard & Poor's Depositary Receipts.

RhumbLine Advisers S&P 500 Index

RhumbLine initially managed the portfolio construction process by screening the stocks and eliminating those which do not have an acceptable quality rating by Value Line or Standard & Poor's, as well as companies not domestically domiciled. The screening excludes approximately 70 securities from the High Grade Index. This version of the Index was converted to a fully-replicating Index Fund in the 1st quarter of 2000.

To minimize tracking error, RhumbLine frequently rebalances the portfolio. There are three events which will trigger rebalancing. These events are:

- Cash accumulates to 1% of the assets
- Changes in the benchmark securities or restricted list
- Major market changes

This policy results in portfolio rebalancing as often as each week, and no less often than each quarter. Each time this "micro-rebalancing" occurs, a list of required buys and sells, with acceptable alternative trades is produced which will bring the portfolio back into compliance with the S&P 500 Index. Typically, these trades represent less than 10% of the individual names in the portfolio, with less than 5% of the available assets. Historically, turnover has averaged less than 6%. In addition to frequent portfolio rebalancing, daily industry-sector weighting reports are reviewed to assure the portfolio is replicating risk and return characteristics of the S&P 500 Index.

RhumbLine Advisers S&P 400 Mid Cap Index

The portfolio for the Rhumbline S&P 400 Mid-Cap Index Fund has a construction and management process similar to that of the S&P 500 Index Fund. The methodology is a combination of a replication and stratification sampling process. The portfolio will hold approximately 375 issues. About 95% of the index, or 320 of the largest stocks in the index, are held in replicating weights. The remaining 5% are sampled; approximately 54 out of 80 stocks are held at weights of 0.10%. The sampled stocks are chosen so that industry weights of the index match industry weights of the portfolio.

RhumbLine Advisers S&P 600 Small Cap Index

The portfolio for the Rhumbline S&P 600 Small-Cap Index Fund has a construction and management process similar to that of the S&P 500 Index Fund. The fund consists of 600 small-cap stocks trading in the U.S with a market capitalization range between $250 million to $900 million. This represents approximately 3% of the domestic equity universe. The Fund has an annual turnover rate of 8 - 10%.

RhumbLine Advisers Barclays U.S. Aggregate Index

The RhumbLine investment team utilizes fixed income investment modeling technology to build and maintain the Core Bond Pooled Index Fund. As the objective of the Fund is to track the risk and return characteristics of the Barclays U.S. Aggregate Bond Index, all investment decisions are made with that as the primary goal. The benchmark has more than 6,000 fixed income instruments to select from so their process incorporates both optimization and stratified sampling in managing the Fund. Other analytical tools are utilized to evaluate fundamental credit research, market analysis of supply and demand and security structure analysis.

Wellington Management Company

Wellington Management Company manages a Barclays U.S. Aggregate-based fixed income portfolio for the Miami Beach Employees' Retirement Plan. The objective of the portfolio strategy is to exceed the return of the Barclays U.S. Aggregate Total Bond Index through investments in intermediate and longer maturity, investment grade fixed income securities. Average maturity of the bond portfolios is typically between 8 and 12 years. Average duration ranges from 4 to 6 years, depending on the firm's interest rate outlook.

Aggregate Bond portfolios typically emphasize corporate and mortgage securities over government and agency securities. The actual weighting of corporate and mortgage securities is a function of yield spreads and the firm's market outlook. Portfolio yield tends to be slightly higher than the Barclays U.S. Aggregate Bond Index, while quality is typically slightly lower due to the emphasis on corporate issues.

The maturity/duration strategy decision is based on both macroeconomic data and bond market indicators. Changes in portfolio strategy normally occur slowly, rather than in sudden, large shifts. Wellington's strategic approach is somewhat contrarian; they tend to gradually increase portfolio duration as rates rise and vice versa.

Bond sector strategies focus on relative value and yield spreads across security types and among quality, issuer and industry sectors. Analysis of historical yield spreads is also used in establishing the sector strategy. Additionally, quality yield spreads are monitored for swap opportunities. The Bond strategy is supported by two groups within the company which supply fundamental and valuation information on two of the major domestic market sectors. These groups are the Mortgage Backed Strategy Group, and the Credit Screening Group.

Wellington's corporate bond research effort is distinctive in that it focuses on avoiding down-gradings as well as on evaluating default risk. The fixed income research effort results in a Bond Universe of issuers pre-approved for purchase. Only securities issued by companies on the Bond Universe list may be included in the portfolio. The Bond Universe includes approximately 350 corporate debt issuers selected out of 700 investment grade bond issuers who have at least $50 million of public debt outstanding.

RhumbLine Advisers ADR Index

Rhumbline manages a portfolio to track the performance of the Standard & Poor's ADR Index. The investment objective is to generate a total return that falls within a range of +/- 15 basis points (0.15%) of the return of the index over both a short (1 to 3 years) and long (3 to 5 years) term investment horizons. The portfolio utilizes a full replication methodology which effectively holds all the securities in the benchmark. The portfolio holdings are monitored to keep sector allocations, market capitalizations and country weights in line with the index.

Dimensional Fund Advisors Emerging Markets Core

The Emerging Markets Core Equity Portfolio is a no-load mutual fund designed to achieve long-term capital appreciation. The Portfolio seeks to purchase a broad and diverse group of securities with an increased exposure to securities of small cap issuers and securities that it considers to be value securities. In assessing value, Dimensional may consider factors such as the issuer's securities having a high book value in relation to their market value, as well as price to cash flow or price to earnings ratios. The criteria for assessing value are subject to change from time to time. The Portfolio invests in securities associated with a diverse group of countries, which may include both emerging and frontier markets, that Dimensional has designated as approved markets.

Coupon - Bond instruments typically pay interest in the form of semi-annual coupon payments. If the annual coupon payment value is divided by the par value of the bond, the coupon rate is derived.

Duration - The bond portfolio duration most commonly referred to is the Macaulay duration. This is a weighted average maturity, expressed in years. All coupon and principal payments are weighted by the present value term for the expected time of payment.

Investment Gain/Loss - The difference in the total dollar value of the portfolio over the past quarter. Changes impacting the dollar value of the portfolio include realized and unrealized capital gains and all cash flows. Cash flows, either contributions or withdrawals, which are made by the plan sponsor are excluded from this calculation.

Income Yield - As referred to in this report, the income yield is calculated on common stock holdings, and is the ratio of the last twelve months dividend payments as a percentage of the most recent quarter-ending stock market value.

Market Capitalization - A security's quarter-ending market value or closing price times the number of common stock shares outstanding.

Maturity - The maturity for an individual bond is calculated as the number of years till principal payment. For a portfolio of bonds, the maturity is a weighted average maturity, where the weighting factors are the individual security's percentage of total portfolio market capitalization.

Percentile - For a range of investment manager performance results, from highest to lowest, a percentile is the performance range spanning one percent of the total range.

Price/Book Value - For an individual common stock, this is the stock's price divided by book value per share. Book value per share is the company's common stockholder's equity divided by the number of common shares outstanding.

Price/Earnings Ratio - The ratio of a common stock's price divided by earnings per share. The ratio is used as a valuation technique employed by investment managers.

Net Contributions - The sum of contributions to and withdrawals from a portfolio, exclusive of regular interest and dividend payments, and miscellaneous expenses.

Portfolio Beta - A common stock's beta, market risk, is the sensitivity of the stock's price in relation to a 1% change in the price of the market benchmark, the S&P 500. A portfolio beta simply weights the individual issues by their percentage of total portfolio market capitalization.

Return on Equity - For a common stock, this is the annual net, after-tax earnings divided by total common stockholder's equity.

Risk/Reward (Sharpe) Ratio - This is the difference in a portfolio's annualized return, for the past five years, and the annualized return for 90-day Treasury Bills, divided by the annualized standard deviation for the same time period. The statistic is a risk-adjusted return. The higher the value the better.

Standard Deviation - The degree of variability of a time series, such as quarterly returns, relative to the average. Standard deviation measures the volatility of the time series.
